

Kathy Carlton
WILLIS
Communications

Interview Sheet

Carol Topp, CPA

author of Micro Business for Teens series

1. What is a micro business?
2. Why is a micro business a good idea for a teenager?
3. What could a teenager learn from running a micro business?
4. What are some ideas for possible micro businesses for teenagers?
5. What got you interested in writing your book series, Micro Business for Teens?
6. What advice do you have for a teenager interested in starting a micro business?
7. What are the steps for getting started?
8. Are there any pitfalls to avoid when starting a micro business?
9. Does a teenager need a lot of money to start their own business?
10. What can parents do to help their teenagers start a micro business?
11. Do teenagers owe taxes on their micro businesses?

About Carol:

Carol Topp, CPA advises teenage business owners through her Micro Business for Teens book series. Carol's day job is accountant to business owners, and she enjoys teaching teenagers to succeed beyond their dreams. Students appreciate how she shares what they need to know in clear and helpful lessons. Her website is MicroBusinessForTeens.com

KCWC, PO Box 677, Brenham, Texas 77834
kathy@kathycarltonwillis.com, 956-642-6319